Theme:

Providing meaningful guidance in a Multicultural context - focusing on the New Skills Agenda in Upskilling Pathways.

The Recommendation - Upskilling Pathways: New Opportunities for Adults - was adopted in December 2016 by the Council of the EU. It is one of the main legislative proposals of the New Skills Agenda for Europe. The principle that everyone, including adults, has the right to quality and inclusive education, training and life-long learning is one of the 20 key principles proposed under the European Pillar of Social Rights.

New Skills Agenda in Upskilling Pathways.

Purpose:

The exchange of guidance practices among guidance practitioners on the topic of providing meaningful guidance in a multicultural context. Participants are requested to bring relevant examples of good practice from their own countries.

Target Group:

Guidance practitioners - particularly in the area of VET

Minimum Number: 6

Maximum Number: 10

Languages Used: English

Requirements:

- a good standard of English
- be a guidance practitioner (or professional with collaborative activity involving guidance) in your own country
- have submitted a completed application via the Euroguidance Ireland website or through your national Euroguidance Centre
- have been authorised for attendance by your National Euroguidance Centre
- be prepared to share your own examples of national (relevant) good practice
- commit to attending all required activity over the course of the visit
- agree to provide requested feedback to Euroguidance Ireland, on participation, for the purpose of dissemination and reporting

Program:

Over the course of the three days the program will focus on exploring the challenges of providing meaningful guidance in a multicultural context; with reference to upskilling and 'The new skills agenda'

This will be done through the exploration of models of provision, the sharing of existing good practice by participants and site visits to a number of Irish guidance services.
